

ANITA TISSIER

PHOTOGRAPHY

Hi! I'm Anita and I'm so glad you're here!

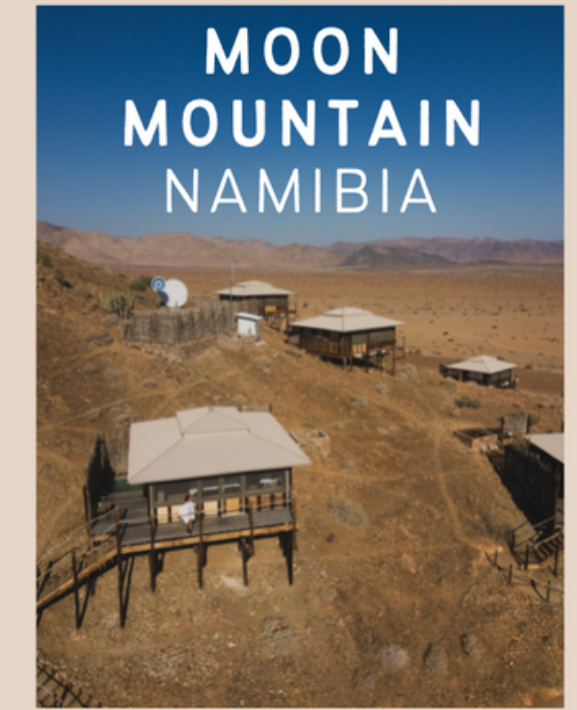

I'm an off-the-beaten-path traveller and photographer. I love to work with travel related companies such as hotels, guesthouses, hostels, tour groups or guides, etc. You name it!

One of my passions is working with companies or brands who help travellers visit lesser-known destinations or promote sustainable travel practices. I would love to inspire people to travel to places they have never heard of and travel deeper and more mindfully while they are there.

I am an American & Canadian ex-pat, from O'ahu, Hawai'i and currently based in the French Riviera and Provence. I am a content creator and my work is focused on travel and lifestyle photography.
